IMPERSONATING POLICE OFFICER
I-95 SB/ RAPPAHANNOCK BRIDGE

ALPHA

Subsequent to a traffic stop on a 1997 Nissan 4-door, deputy spoke with the male passenger, who pulled out a wallet with badge, identified himself as a "Sheriff," and asked to be let go for the malfunctioning tag lights. Deputy looked closely at the badge and noted it showed "Diplomatic Security Officer," and was not credentials, but just identification. Subject advised he was a uniform security officer with a gun at the State Department and worked with Condoleezza Rice. Checks revealed the subject was wanted by Stafford for aggravated sexual battery and indecent liberties; he was taken into custody.

BANK ROBBERY
CARDINAL BANK/ 289 GARRISONVILLE RD

DELTA

An unknown B/M entered the bank while talking on his cell phone, approached a teller, and handed him an envelope with a note advising him to empty the drawers and not to trigger any alarms or he would be forced to take action. No weapon was displayed. The suspect took back the note and provided a straw or burlap bag for the money. Teller put money in the bag and showed the suspect the drawer when he asked if it was empty; the suspect then left on foot. An unknown B/F had entered the bank just before the B/M suspect; when approached, she nervously asked the manager about accounts. She left on foot when the B/M suspect did. Suspects: 20-25 YO BM, 5'8-10", 160-180 lb., black hoodie, sunglasses, do-rag, blue jeans; 20-25 YO BF, 5'4", 180-200 lb., big dark jacket, torn jeans, tennis shoes.
