Crime Report

October 25, 2007

General Assignment

Wednesday, October 24, 2007

4:00 pm – 10:45 pm

RESIDENTIAL B&E/ GRAND LARCENY
200 BLOCK OF MALVERN HILL CT

CHARLIE/ CRESCENT POINTE

Complainant advised that when they arrived home, they found their townhouse ransacked, multiple items stolen, and the rear kitchen door ajar. There was no sign of forced entry; his girlfriend advised she might have left the back door unlocked. A computer, two TVs, PS3 system, guitar and amp, home entertainment sound system, PS2 & PS3 games, and multiple DVDs were stolen. They suspect a former co-worker whom they had let stay with them, but had kicked out on Monday after money turned up missing.

Crimes Against Persons

No major crimes reported.

Patrol

Tuesday, October 23, 2007

10:01 am

HARRASSING PHONE CALLS
WOODS EDGE CT

DELTA/ HUNTER TRAIL AT STAFFORD

On Thursday, October 25, 2007, complainant advised that since the above-cited time frame, she has received multiple phone calls that were threatening and sexual in nature from a blocked number. She advised the only person she could think of as a possible suspect was a friend of the family that is just now back in Stafford after being released from some kind of jail on Monday. She has no evidence it is him and has never had issues with him in the past, but found the timing odd.

11:40 pm

STALKING
200 BLOCK OF LANGLEY CT

CHARLIE/ POTOMAC HILLS

Complainant advised that a former friend of hers came to her residence demanding entry and threatening to kick the door down. She further advised that when she arrived home from work on Wednesday, he was parked across the street staring at her; he has also made threatening phone calls to her in prior weeks. She had attempted to serve a no trespass letter on him, but did not have a current address. System checks of his prior offenses revealed several violent crimes. Emergency Protective Order issued, but not served (no current address).
