GRAND LARCENY

VA PAVING/ 1014 GARRISONVILLE RD

DELTA

On Thursday, September 20, 2007, complainant (supervisor) advised that at the above-cited date, over 89 tons of asphalt was loaded from an asphalt silo into a 2001 Freightliner dump truck; the driver told the operator on duty that he did not have a check for it, but his boss was en route to pay for the almost $4400 of asphalt. Because of prior dealings with the company, it was not a problem. However, the boss never showed up, and several messages have not been returned.

Wednesday, September 19, 2007 – Thursday, September 20, 2007 10:00 pm– 5:00 am

GRAND LARCENY

STAFFORD ATHLETIC CLUB/ 1001 PARKWAY BLVD

DELTA/ PARK RIDGE

Complainant (owner) advised that during the above-cited time frame, someone stole money from their petty cash envelope and earrings from a lost and found envelope, both of which were in a front desk drawer. There was no forced entry into the business. They also stole coins from two Coke vending machines; there was no forced entry and the key is kept in an always-open safe. Complainant suspects a former employee let go due to money missing while he worked; he never turned in his key.
