Thomas J. Fincham (age 27) was arrested and held without bond after stealing a Stafford County Sheriff's Office patrol vehicle. Deputies responded to assist rescue members with an intoxicated subject with possible injuries. When they arrived, the subject (identified as Fincham) ran into the wood line near the residence. While deputies attempted to talk Fincham out of the woods, he circled around, took a patrol vehicle and fled the scene. During the pursuit, Fincham rammed several other patrol vehicles. The pursuit ended after spike strips were deployed and Fincham crashed the patrol vehicle into a utility pole. Fincham struggled with Deputies briefly before being subdued and taken into custody. Stafford County Deputies charged Fincham with multiple Felonies and Misdemeanors; additional charges may come from the Virginia State Police and King George County.
