TRESPASSING (19)
M.V.H.S./ 2135 MOUNTAIN VIEW RD

Neighbor advised that multiple subjects who did not appear to be students were playing soccer on a rear field at the school. The school has made complaints in the past about subjects destroying the fields and trespassing on weekends when the school is closed. Deputy noted a prior incident in April where 50-60 unauthorized soccer players on the field were warned. In the current incident, two apparent teams in yellow and red jerseys were found playing soccer with family and friends on the sidelines. A coach advised they did not have permission, most of them were from PWC & MD, and it was their first time at this location.

HAMPTON OAKS

Deputy responding to a vandalism of a car cover at Cathedral Lane also located a camera case with digital camera and "Kejesbu" on the side. They did find a dining room window screen pried off. In addition, resident at nearby Burns Road found a bag with "KTK" on the outside and a receiver inside located in their trashcan. The bag was stolen from the basement on Cathedral Lane, along with 2 speakers and a laptop. The homeowner possibly left the interior door from the garage unlocked after taking out the trash. It is believed the suspect(s) used the garage opener from the unlocked vehicle to enter.
