

STAFFORD COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

Crime Prevention Unit

Crime Report

March 20, 2008

General Assignment

Wednesday, March 19, 2008 – Thursday, March 20, 2008 unknown – 9:56 am

RESIDENTIAL B&E/ LARCENY/ VANDALISM
200 BLOCK OF HOPE RD

CHARLIE

Victim's 21-year-old son found a rear basement window broken while the parents are in FL; victim advised she suspects her 18-year-old son who ran away a week prior to her leaving for FL and does not have house keys. She advised he sleeps in the woods and has been diagnosed with Asberger's syndrome. The suspect attempted to break into a Sentry safe in a basement closet; the safe manual was found on victim's bed, and some of her underwear is missing.

Wednesday, March 19, 2008 – Thursday, March 20, 2008 8:00 pm – 7:16 am

B&E AT NEW CONSTRUCTION SITE/ GRAND LARCENY
TECH PKWY

DELTA/ NORTH STAFFORD CENTER

Site supervisor advised an unknown subject(s) threw a large rock through a rear window of the building under construction to gain entry. They forced open an interior door and stole a black desktop computer that had recently been set up in an office-type structure. Complainant suspects an unspecified laborer because they knew exactly where the PC was and nothing else was disturbed.

Thursday, March 20, 2008 9:00 am – 11:00 am

GRAND LARCENY
300 BLOCK OF LYNDAL CT

BRAVO/ SPRING VALLEY

Complainant advised she was told that a friend at whose house she left her X-Box 360 with purple halo controller & Rock Star game for friends to use had sold the items for marijuana. The friend claimed someone stole the items from his room after entering through his unlocked rear sliding glass door; he advised he is being framed. Complainant's boyfriend was told that the X-Box is somewhere off Fall Hill Avenue in the city; the game is supposedly at another subject's house in Spring Valley, but no contact has been made with him yet.

Patrol

No major crimes reported.