Patrol

Tuesday, March 25, 2008 – Wednesday, March 26, 2008 unknown – 1:23 pm

VANDALISM (WINDOW/BB)

J & J UPHOLSTRY/ 1039 GARRISONVILLE RD

DELTA

Complainant advised an unknown subject(s) cracked a window near the main entrance to the business, which is located in a former single-family house; the damage is consistent with a BB. Checks of other nearby buildings were negative for similar damage. This company had a similar window/BB incident in December 2007.

Wednesday, March 26, 2008 – Thursday, March 27, 2008 6:30 am – 10:00 am

LARCENY FROM UNLOCKED VEHICLE AT CONSTRUCTION SITE

ADJACENT TO MT ARARAT BAPTIST CHURCH/ 65 TOLUCA RD

DELTA

Complainant (site supervisor) advised an unknown subject(s) stole his company-owned digital camera, bottle of 10 hydrocodone, and bottle of 29 anti-inflammatory pills from the center console of his unlocked 2002 Chevrolet 1510 pickup parked at the site.

VANDALISM (WINDOWS) / DIP/ CONTRIBUTING TO DELINQ.

800 BLOCK OF GRAFTON ST

BRAVO/ GRAFTON VILLAGE

Complainant advised an unknown subject(s) shattered his front glass door and window. Deputy noted door glass appeared to have been hit with a blunt object consistent with a baseball bat and the window appeared to have been broken with multiple rocks, some of which were between the two panes. Three subjects were located on Payton Drive, one of whom admitted to buying and giving his underage brothers alcohol. He advised they came across some guys who ran their mouths back and forth with them and then attempted to run away; he did not go into details, but took responsibility for the vandalism.
