CRIMINAL ACTIVITY REPORT (POSSIBLE SCAM)
VIRGINIA AVE

ALPHA/ LOCUST KNOLLS

Complainant advised an unknown B/M in a white van knocked on her door; when she didn't answer, he went to her neighbor's house. When he was done there, she approached him; he asked to come in and work on her water. When she advised it was fine, he said he needed to work on her cable TV. He ran to his van when she went to call 911. She advised he had a badge around his neck that appeared to be an employee ID. He kept his hand on the ID, which prevented her from reading it, but she did see a picture of him on it. The van was a white Chevrolet Astro van with a 12"x12" magnet with "COX" in black letters on the passenger side; a silver ladder and a cone were located on the roof. There was an unknown heavysset B/F passenger in the van. The neighbor at another location advised the B/M had asked her about cable TV as well; when she told him she had FIOS, he asked if she still had her Cox equipment (she did not).

Suspect: 20-30 YOBM, light skinned, 6', 190-210 lb., plaid shirt, blue jeans
