Weekly Crime Report

April 3rd — April 9th, 2023

ALPHA ZONE:

25 South Gateway Drive Larceny: Shoplifting (X4.)	Target	04/03/23
503 Deacon Road Larceny: Theft of student's Beats headphones from an unsecured locker.	Dixon Smith Middle School	04/06/23
Mountain View Road Fraud: SCAM: Victim received a call from Verizon inquiring whether the victim had given anyone permission to order phones on the victim's account, to which the victim confirmed no one had permission. Verizon representative explained two (2) Apple iPhone 14s Pro Max had been ordered and would arrive at the victim's home soon. Victim was further instructed to accept the order and return to Verizon for a full refund. Meanwhile, a UPS driver was approached by two (2) gentlemen asking to get the two packages off the UPS truck, showing the driver their tracking numbers. Coincidentally, these same two individuals had been noticed in front of the victim's home earlier in the day with the hood up on their car claiming to have car problems. The UPS driver contacted the victim and asked if he could release the two packages to the individuals, the driver was told no, and further instructed to deliver the packages to the victim's home; UPS driver complied. Once at the victim's home, the UPS driver contacted the Sheriff's Office to inform them of the foiled scam. Potential monetary loss of $3,000, however, due to the security measures of Verizon, UPS, and the victim, no loss was sustained.	Mountain View	04/07/23
125 Washington Street Larceny: Theft of money from an unsecured vehicle.		04/08/23
11 Village Parkway Larceny: Shoplifting.	Walmart	04/09/23
