WEEKLY CRIME REPORT

NOVEMBER 25TH – DECEMBER 1ST, 2024

ALPHA ZONE

LARCENY

Wawa, 830 Warrenton Road. Deputies responded to a larceny. Staff advised a "repeat shoplifter" returned to shoplift again. Deputies located the suspect nearby and detained him without incident. The $20 worth of snacks was returned to the business and the suspect was charged with shoplifting.

Walmart, 11 Village Parkway. A deputy responded to a larceny. Staff advised a female suspect was neglecting to scan certain items in her cart. The "nearly" $140 worth of items were recovered and the suspect received a summons for shoplifting.

Walmart, 11 Village Parkway. Deputies responded to another Walmart larceny. Staff advised a female suspect passed all points of sale with approximately $135 worth of items. The deputy made contact with the suspect and charged her with shoplifting. She was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail on a $1,000 secured bond.

Walmart, 11 Village Parkway. A deputy responded to a larceny. Staff advised a known shoplifter was back and currently concealing items. When staff attempted to stop the suspect, he fled on foot. The deputy was able to locate the suspect at a nearby business. The suspect had signs of intoxication and was currently drinking a club cocktail. The suspect was charged with larceny, shoplifting, and public intoxication. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

PUBLIC INTOXICATION

Motel 6, 401 Warrenton Road. A deputy responded to a disturbance. The caller advised an ex-boyfriend showed up out of the blue and was "high on meth." The deputy made contact with the suspect, who was in view of the public, and observed several signs of intoxication. He was charged with public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

DISTURBANCE

Cropp Road. A deputy responded to a disturbance. The victim advised an ex-girlfriend egged his door. She would then take a screwdriver to the doorknob to force herself into his property. While attempting to have her leave, the suspect assaulted the victim. The suspect was charged with assault and battery, unlawful entry, and two (2) counts of destruction of property.

DUI

Area of Countryside Drive and Stony Hill Road. A deputy responded to a single-vehicle auto accident. A truck had serious damage, including three of the four tires being off the vehicle. Witnesses advised the driver stumbled off after the accident. The deputy located the driver nearby and made contact with him. The driver had severe signs of intoxication and informed the deputy that the auto accident was "none of your business." Due to his level of intoxication and agitated state, deputies attempted to detain him as he resisted. The driver would continue to act belligerent after being detained, threatening to kill deputies. Within the vehicle, deputies located an open beer container. He was charged with driving under the influence 2nd offense within 5 years, 2nd offense refusal, drinking while driving, two (2) counts of obstruction of justice, as well as, the traffic lane violation. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail pending his ability to participate in a bond hearing.

BRAVO ZONE

ASSAULT

The suspect was charged with public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

Select Leaf Tobacco, 261 Garrisonville Road. A deputy responded to an intoxicated person report. The caller advised a male was stumbling around and appeared intoxicated. The deputy made contact with the stumbling suspect and noticed signs of intoxication. The suspect also admitted to consuming "a couple shots." He was charged with public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

THREATS

Colonial Forge High School. A deputy was conducting her SRO duties when she was informed of a threat. A student sent threatening text messages to another student due to a disagreement over a boy. A criminal complaint for using threatening language was filed.

SCAM-AWARE

Victim was on his computer attempting to log in to his investment account selecting a link that he thought was the legitimate website for the Schwab account. When he attempted to gain access to his account a pop-up appeared on his screen and advised that there was an account error and he needed to contact the phone number on the screen. He called the phone number and spoke with "David" who was an IT specialist for Schwab. "David" advised the victim that his account had been compromised and an individual had put in an order for $14,000.00 with Bitcoin. The victim was instructed to take out $14,000.00 in cash and deposit it into a Bitcoin machine to start a new transaction for Bitcoin. This new transaction would then help "David" cancel the false charge; the victim complied. The victim was told he would be contacted by noon to confirm the new account had been established. By noon the following day, the victim had not received a call and realized he had been the victim of a scam.

Victim advised he received a message on his computer about an error with his investment account. Using the phone number provided in the message, the victim made contact with an individual who advised the victim needed to transfer money into Bitcoin to cancel the error. Victim knew this was a scam and disconnected.

Victim advised he received a call from someone posing as a law enforcement officer. The fake officer informed the victim he had missed court in Alexandria and needed to pay using cryptocurrency to avoid being arrested. Victim disconnected immediately.
