

Stafford County Sheriff's Office

WEEKLY CRIME REPORT

OCTOBER 9TH— OCTOBER 15TH, 2023

ALPHA ZONE

ASSAULT

Elkton Drive, deputies responded to an assault. The victim advised her children got into a verbal argument with another group of juveniles. While attempting to de-escalate the situation, the victim was assaulted by the group, resulting in a fight.

LARCENY

Walmart, 11 Village Parkway, deputy responded to a larceny. Three (3) suspects entered the store and stole multiple electronic items.

Stonehaven Drive, deputy responded to a larceny. The reporting party advised a family member's vehicle was unlawfully taken by another family member. The stolen vehicle was later located by the deputy. The suspect was charged with unauthorized use of a vehicle and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail on a $20 secured bond.

Heron Drive, deputy responded to a larceny. The victim advised she lent her vehicle to an ex-partner, but now the ex-partner was refusing to return the vehicle. A warrant for unauthorized use of a vehicle was obtained.

ALPHA ZONE

PUBLIC INTOXICATION

7-Eleven, 1036 Warrenton Road, deputy responded to a welfare check. The caller advised a staff member appeared under the influence. When the deputy arrived, she observed the clearly intoxicated staff member attempting to operate the cash register. The suspect was charged with public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

DUI

Intersection of Warrenton Road and Short Street, deputy was traveling on Warrenton Road when he observed a vehicle drive through a red light and make an illegal U-turn. After witnessing the clear traffic violations, the deputy conducted a traffic stop and an additional deputy responded to assist. The driver appeared under the influence and admitted to consuming three beers 30 minutes ago. He also had no inspection sticker. The driver was charged with driving under the influence, driving with no inspection, failure to obey a traffic light, and a traffic lane violation. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

DRUGS

Shasta Place, deputies were in the area when they located an individual wanted out of Fairfax. During a search incident to arrest, suspected controlled substances were located. More suspected controlled substances were located when he was searched by jail staff. The suspect was charged with possession of controlled substances, felony committed by a prisoner, and served on his outstanding warrants. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

BRAVO ZONE

CRIMINAL ACTIVITY

Intersection of Cambridge Street and Enon Road, deputies responded to a call of suspicious persons. Two (2) juveniles were riding on bicycles without any lights or reflectors. While informing the pair of the dangers riding around this late with no lights or reflectors, both juveniles provided false identities. This was quickly found out. One of the juveniles was found with a vape while the other was found with a concealed BB gun. Criminal complaints for falsely identifying himself to law enforcement and underage possession of tobacco were filed for juvenile one. Criminal complaints for falsely identifying himself to law enforcement and carrying a concealed weapon were filed for juvenile two. Both were released to their parents.

DUI

Little Street, deputy responded to a single-vehicle accident. The caller advised prior to the vehicle driving into a ditch, it had swerved into oncoming traffic. When contact was made with the suspect, who had clear signs of being intoxicated, the suspect advised "nothing" was wrong. After field sobriety tests, the suspect was charged with driving under the influence. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

Leeland Road, deputy responded to a drunk driver complaint. The caller advised she witnessed the suspect consume alcohol prior to driving. The deputy was able to locate the suspect vehicle and made contact with the driver. The driver not only had signs of being intoxicated but had a large bottle of an alcoholic beverage sitting next to her. After conducting field sobriety tests, she was charged with driving under the influence with a blood alcohol content greater than .2, and drinking while driving. She was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

LARCENY

Weis Market, 282 Deacon Road, deputy responded to a larceny. Staff advised they watched a male skip-scan items. Staff provided the license plate of the suspect vehicle, which the deputy located. The suspect was adamant he did "nothing wrong" despite there was video of the larceny. A warrant for shoplifting was obtained.

BRAVO ZONE

PUBLIC INTOXICATION

Pratt Street, deputy responded to a call of an intoxicated person. Dispatch received a call from someone screaming. When the deputy arrived, he located the suspect outside. The suspect had the strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from her breath. She was arrested for public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

7-Eleven, 324 White Oak Road, deputy responded to an unknown problem. The caller advised there was a man lying in the middle of the road. They further advised the male was going to fight the bystanders helping him. The deputy made contact with the suspect who appeared to be under the influence and thought he was in Henrico. The suspect was charged with public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

CRIMINAL ACTIVITY

Intersection of Cambridge Street and Warrenton Road, deputy responded to a road rage incident. The victim advised during a road rage incident, a passenger in the other vehicle threw a cup at their vehicle. The victim provided the license plate of the suspect vehicle, and the deputy was able to identify the passenger. The passenger was charged with throwing a missile at a moving vehicle. He was released by the magistrate on personal recognizance.

ASSAULT

Prestige Auto Repair & Parts, 204 Thompson Avenue, deputy responded to an assault. It was discovered the suspect entered the business and started a verbal altercation with an employee. During the altercation, the suspect assaulted the victim, produced a knife, and threw a trash can towards the victim until other employees could intervene. The suspect was charged with assault and battery. He was released by the magistrate on personal recognizance.

CHARLIE ZONE

TRESPASS

Stafford Hospital, 101 Hospital Center Boulevard, deputy responded to a disturbance. Staff advised there was a man on the property refusing to be seen by staff and refusing to leave. The deputy gave the suspect multiple chances to be seen by staff or to leave, but he continued not to cooperate. He was charged with disorderly conduct on hospital grounds and trespassing. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

FRAUD

Towne Place Suites, 2772 Richmond Highway, deputy responded to a fraud. The out-of-state victim advised their credit card was fraudulently used in Stafford, including at the Town Place Suites. After discovering the fraudulent charges, the victim canceled the credit card.

LARCENY

7-Eleven, 3623 Richmond Highway, deputy responded to a larceny. It was advised the victim rented a Dodge Charger from Enterprise. While at 7-Eleven, the vehicle was stolen.

Crows Nest, 2500 Brooke Road, deputy responded to a larceny. The victim advised his vehicle was broken into and cash was stolen.

CHARLIE ZONE

PUBLIC INTOXICATION

Stafford Hospital, 101 Hospital Center Boulevard, deputy responded to a call of an intoxicated person. The caller advised there was a man in the lobby acting belligerently and refused to leave. The deputy made contact with the suspect, who had clear signs of being intoxicated. The suspect was given multiple chances to call for a ride, but the suspect refused. He was charged with public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

DHL Project Movers, 705 Bradburn Place, deputy responded to an unknown problem. The caller advised there was a man lying on the ground near the parking lot. The deputy made contact with the suspect who appeared to be under the influence. The deputy also located suspected controlled substances in his possession, which the suspect played off as being sea moss. He was charged with public intoxication and possession of controlled substances. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail on a $1,000 secured bond.

DUI

Family Pizzeria, 1924 Richmond Highway, deputy responded to a three-vehicle-involved auto accident. The suspect driver advised she could not remember which direction she was heading prior to the crash, only that she was on her way to pick up her son. She showed signs of being under the influence, as well as, admitted to consuming alcohol prior to driving. The driver was charged with driving under the influence, and failure to wear a seatbelt.

Valero, 2142 Richmond Highway, deputy responded to a drunk driver complaint. The caller was concerned due to the driving behavior of another vehicle. The deputy located the suspect vehicle as the driver was filling it up. The driver had clear signs of being intoxicated despite her advising she'd "done nothing wrong". After conducting field sobriety tests, she was charged with driving under the influence.

CHARLIE ZONE

DUI

Brooke Road, deputy was responding to a report of a hit and run when he noticed a vehicle with no headlights and front-end damage. The deputy conducted a traffic stop and made contact with the 17-year-old driver, who admitted he just left the scene of an accident. The underage driver had clear signs of being intoxicated, as well as, an open can of an alcoholic beverage sitting next to him. It was later discovered he was also in possession of two vapes. The driver's guardian was informed of the incident and that criminal complaints for driving under the influence, drinking while driving, hit and run, underage possession of alcohol, underage possession of tobacco, and driving without headlights would be filed.

KFC, 2838 Richmond Highway, deputy was traveling on Richmond Highway when he observed a vehicle bounce over a median and begin traveling Southbound in the Northbound lanes. The deputy conducted a traffic stop as additional deputies responded to assist. The driver advised he "didn't pay attention" while driving and that he consumed "not too much" prior to getting behind the wheel. After conducting field sobriety tests, the driver was charged with driving under the influence, and the traffic lane violation. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

DELTA ZONE

DUI

Sleep Inn Motel, 595 Warrenton Road, deputies responded to a disturbance. A customer and staff member got into a verbal argument resulting in the staff member quitting. The staff member got in her vehicle and attempted to leave, but was stopped by deputies. The staff member had signs of being under the influence and admitted to consuming controlled substances. She was charged with driving under the influence second offense within five to ten years. She was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail on a $2,500 secured bond.

Boundary Drive, deputy was on the scene for an unrelated matter when a vehicle drove up to the residence. The driver appeared under the influence so the deputy inquired how much he had to drink. The driver admitted to consuming a couple of beers prior to driving. It was also discovered the driver had a suspended license. He was charged with driving under the influence and driving while suspended. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

LARCENY

Pine View Drive, deputy responded to a disturbance. The caller advised a man came to her front porch, took two (2) beers from the victim's outside cooler, and proceeded to crack them open and consume them. The whole incident was captured by doorbell footage. The deputy was able to identify the suspect due to him leaving a prior warrant at the scene of the crime. A warrant for larceny was obtained.

Sheetz, 1175 Garrisonville Road, deputy responded to a larceny. Staff advised two (2) males stole multiple items before fleeing in a vehicle. Staff provided the license plate of that vehicle, which nearby deputies located. Within the vehicle were not only the two suspects, but the stolen goods. Both were issued a summons for shoplifting.

Target, 1090 Stafford Market Place, deputy responded to a larceny. Staff advised they had video of a suspect stealing four (4) times over the last month. Approximately $500 worth of items was taken.

DELTA ZONE

BREAKING AND ENTERING

Brushy Creek Circle, deputy responded to a breaking and entering. The victim advised someone had broken into the residence. While the deputy was on scene, he heard the suspect still within the residence. Deputies cleared the residence and detained the suspect. The suspect was known to the victim and had been arrested for trespassing at this location earlier in the month. He was charged with unlawful entry into a residence and was released by the magistrate on personal recognizance.

DRUGS

North Stafford High School, 839 Garrisonville Road, deputy was conducting his SRO duties when he was informed of drug activity. Staff advised they observed a student vaping in the restroom. After conducting a search, they discovered the student was in possession of six THC vapes, and two edibles. Juvenile Intake refused the charge of possession with intent to distribute, so only a criminal complaint for possession on school grounds was filed.

FRAUD

Ebenezer Church Road, deputy responded to a fraud. The victim advised his credit card was being fraudulently used in New York.

Banbury Court, deputy responded to a fraud. The victim advised his information was fraudulently used to open nearly $30,000 worth of loans.

VANDALISM

Wawa, 105 Garrisonville Road, deputy responded to a vandalism. Staff advised a female was currently writing on the walls. It was discovered the suspect had written all over the bathroom. The deputy located the suspect, who also had littered. She was charged with damaging a public building, entering a property with intent to damage, and littering. She was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

Tavern Road, deputy responded to a vandalism. The victim advised their Halloween decoration was purposely damaged.

Buffalo Wild Wings, deputy responded to a vandalism. The victim had their vehicle keyed while enjoying wings.

WARRANT SERVED

Home Depot, 95 Dunn Drive, the deputy was attempting to locate a missing dog. While there, he made contact with a male who was wanted out of Florida. He was charged with fugitive from justice and was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

SCAM-AWARE

Sheriff's Office received a fraud report. Victim was contacted in reference to winning a vehicle and money from what she believed to be Publisher's Clearinghouse. The victim was contacted by various individuals who claimed to be part of Publisher's Clearinghouse organization and was eventually instructed to purchase gift cards and forward the funds to pay off the taxes for her winnings: Apple- $1,239 and Money Pak- $300. A third transaction, Money Pak $500, was not completed. Victim quickly realized it was a scam.

Verona Court, deputy responded to a fraud. The victim advised they were contacted by someone posing as PayPal. The fake PayPal employee advised they accidentally sent the victim $10,000 and she needed to pay it back by Bitcoin.

Colonial Avenue, deputy responded to an extortion attempt. The victim advised he attempted to receive his commercial driver's license from an ad on Facebook. The individual he was conversing with demanded money. The victim did not want to send money for fear of it being a scam. The suspect then threatened both the victim and his family if he did not comply. No money was given to the suspect and the messages contained similarities to other scams.

Macon Drive, 10/14, deputy responded to a fraud. The victim advised she received an email from someone pretending to be her boss. The fake boss informed her he wanted to send gift cards out to employees and asked her to buy the gift cards.

This report does not encompass all of the reported crimes that may have occurred in the county, but only those noted for media interest. Anyone with information regarding the incidents listed in this report is asked to contact the Stafford County Sheriff's Office at (540) 658-4450. For ongoing updates, follow us on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Turn in unneeded medication for safe disposal.

Saturday, October 28

10 a.m.-2 p.m.

Keep them safe. Clean them out. Take them back.

Visit DEATakeBack.com for a collection site near you.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Benefiting Stafford County Crime Solvers

Stafford Shredding

Drive-thru style!!!

Join the Stafford County Crime Solvers
for a safe and secure way to dispose of documents!

November 4, 2023
9am – 11am (or until full)
Stafford County Sheriff's Office
(1225 Courthouse Rd. Stafford, 22554)

LIMIT 100lbs PER VEHICLE

Contact CRIME PREVENTION UNIT with questions 540-658-4030

WANT TO SEE CRIME TRENDS NEAR YOU?

Near a Location

Enter an address, landmark or zip code

GO

GO TO:
WWW.CRIMEMAPPING.COM