

STAFFORD COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
DAILY INCIDENT REPORT
RELEASE DATE: APRIL 10, 2025

ASSAULT

Belle Plains Road, 4/9, 2:20 p.m. Deputy D.S. Jett wasn't even on the clock yet when he was flagged down for an assault. The victim, an Instacart delivery driver, advised she attempted to drop off a delivery. While doing so, the intoxicated consumer assaulted the victim and attempted to take alcohol by force. Deputy Jett made his way to the suspect's residence where he located the intoxicated female in the process of getting behind the wheel. Deputy Jett quickly stopped that and detained the suspect. She was charged with assault and battery, as well as, public intoxication. She was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

LARCENY

Walmart, 217 Garrisonville Road, 4/9, 4:49 p.m. Deputy N.J. Amato responded to a larceny. While the Ninja Creami is all the rage these days, a male and female pair decided to join the craze by stealing one.

Devilwood Way, 4/9, 7:10 p.m. Deputy N.J. Amato responded to the menacing sounding street for a disturbance. It was advised one of the victim's vehicles had its window broken out while the other was stolen. Luckily, a nearby home security camera captured the entire ordeal. Using the video, Deputy Amato was able to identify the suspect. The vehicle was entered as stolen into a law enforcement database as warrants were obtained.

WEAPON OFFENSE

Brooke Road, 4/9, 9:51 p.m. Deputy H.H. Cassetta responded to a shooting. The victims had their television shot. Luckily, no one was injured during the 3-D John Wick experience. It was discovered the bullet could have potentially come from the roadway.
