

STAFFORD COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
DAILY INCIDENT REPORT
RELEASE DATE: APRIL 24, 2025

DRUGS

Castle Rock Drive, 4/23, 5:14 p.m. Deputies conducted a traffic stop on a vehicle with no front license plate. During the traffic stop, it was discovered the driver had a suspended license and the 2025 registration sticker she had displayed was forged. In a fit of honesty, she would also admit to being in the possession of a crack pipe. Suspected controlled substances were indeed located in her possession and in the possession of the passenger. The driver was charged with possession of controlled substances, driving while suspended, and having a forged decal. She was released by the magistrate on personal recognizance. The passenger was charged with possession of controlled substances and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail on a $1,000 secured bond.

DUI

Cool Springs Road, 4/23, 9:07 p.m. Deputies responded to a suspicious vehicle report. The reporting party advised an unknown vehicle was in his driveway and the driver seemed intoxicated. When deputies arrived, they located the driver asleep with the keys still in the ignition. After waking up, the driver displayed signs of intoxication and admitted to consuming "some beers." The suspended driver was charged with driving under the influence with a blood alcohol content greater than .2 and driving while suspended. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

LARCENY

Kohl's, 1220 Stafford Market Place, 4/23, 7:32 p.m. Deputy B.E. Vaughn responded to a larceny in progress. Staff advised a known shoplifter was back at it, this time concealing items in the fitting room. Deputy Vaughn located the suspect after he passed all points of sale with the approximately $355 worth of stolen items. The suspect was additionally discovered to be in possession of a burglary tool and connected to another larceny from the same location earlier this month. The suspect was charged with shoplifting and possession of burglary tools. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

THREATS

Ford T. Humphrey Public Safety Building, 1225 Courthouse Road, 4/23, 9:30 p.m. Deputy N.J. Amato was finishing an unrelated report when he was approached by a female regarding a threat report. The victim advised an online boyfriend would not stop calling and texting her with threats on her life. The threats continued in the presence of Deputy Amato. Warrants for threats of death, stalking, and annoying phone calls were obtained. A service request was sent to the local police department in Florida who served the suspect on his warrants.

VANDALISM

Apricot Street, 4/23, 2:20 p.m. Deputy C.S. Harding responded to a potential breaking and entering. The victim advised while inside the residence their front door was violently kicked in. While it was discovered no entry was made into the residence, there was serious damage to the doorframe. A Ring doorbell camera captured the incident of a juvenile kicking in the door before quickly fleeing. Deputy S.M. Eastman located the suspect nearby, who admitted to the damages as a "prank." No one was laughing as a criminal complaint for vandalism was obtained.
