

STAFFORD COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
DAILY INCIDENT REPORT
RELEASE DATE: APRIL 4, 2025

DRUGS

Rappahannock Regional Jail, 1745 Richmond Highway, 4/3, 11:45 a.m. Deputy R.L. Hubbard responded to a drug scavenger hunt. Jail staff were conducting a search of a cell when they discovered a suspected controlled substance. The baggie was seized and charges are pending.

FRAUD

Cork Street, 4/3, 4:41 p.m. Deputy T.K. Phillips responded to a fraud report. The victim advised while attempting to return pants on her i-Pad, she received a pop-up message stating the device was compromised. The victim called the number provided and the scammer advised she would need to withdraw money into Bitcoin.

PUBLIC INTOXICATION

Leite & Surfer Tax Service, 274 Warrenton Road, 4/3, 1:37 p.m. Deputy A.E. Epps was in the area when she observed a stumbling male carrying a beverage wrapped in a brown paper bag. The suspect was actively drinking a Miller Lite and had signs of intoxication. While tax season might have some reaching for the bottle, doing so in public caused the suspect to be charged with public intoxication and to be held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.
