

STAFFORD COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
DAILY INCIDENT REPORT
RELEASE DATE: JUNE 16, 2025

ASSAULT

England Pointe Drive, 6/14, 7:36 p.m. Deputy I.E. Baldi and Deputy C.R. Newman responded to a fight. It was discovered a male suspect assaulted a female victim after a verbal disagreement. Warrants for the male have been obtained, but not yet served.

HIT AND RUN

Town Center Boulevard, 6/14, 10:47 p.m. Deputy A.G. Hart responded to an auto accident. It was discovered the victim's vehicle was hit head-on and the at fault driver drove off. Luckily, a witness was able to provide the license plate of the at fault vehicle. Later, Deputy Hart received a call from the Prince William Police Department advising they located the at fault vehicle and the driver was arrested for DUI. On top of Prince William's charge, Deputy Hart obtained a warrant for failure to report a hit and run. She was held at Prince William County Adult Detention Center until sober.

LARCENY

Target, 1090 Stafford Market Place, 6/13, 8:35 p.m. Sergeant A.T. Leckemby responded to a larceny. In preparation of Father's Day, a juvenile decided to steal Father's Day items and men's clothing. A criminal complaint for shoplifting was filed and ironically enough, she was released to her father.

VANDALISM

Shasta Place, 6/14, 8:04 p.m. Deputy D.S. Jett responded to a vandalism. Recently, the victim had her tire fixed due to a nail in it. Shortly after, she would discover the same tire now had ten nails in it. Deputy Jett is continuing his efforts to nail the suspect.
