

STAFFORD COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
DAILY INCIDENT REPORT
RELEASE DATE: JUNE 17, 2025

ASSAULT

Butler Road, 6/16, 11:48 a.m. Deputy A.E. Epps responded to a disturbance with a weapon report. The victim advised while in the bathroom, his roommate confronted him about rent. The bathroom shakedown escalated when the roommate would attempt to strike the victim using a screwdriver. The roommate was charged with attempted felonious assault, as well as, assault and battery. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

DISTURBANCE

Coopers Lane, 6/16, 10:57 a.m. First Sergeant A.I. Assur and Deputy H.H. Cassetta responded to a disturbance. It was advised a male was entering people's homes. While the suspect did not appear hostile, he was continuing his spree of unlawfully entering people's residence. He was located and charged with unlawful entry. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

DUI

Area of Garrisonville Road and Onville Road. 6/15, 1:52 a.m. First Sergeant B.U. Demirci was traveling in the area when he observed a speedy Jeep drifting from lane to lane. A traffic stop was conducted and Deputy T.G. Croson responded to assist. The driver had signs of intoxication, admitted to taking a shot before driving, and an open bottle of tequila was located within the vehicle. The tequila troublemaker was charged with driving under the influence and refusal. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail on a $1,000 secured bond.

Southbound I-95 near mile marker 140, 6/15, 2:30 a.m. First Sergeant B.U. Demirci would be two for two on catching DUI drivers. Just like the previous DUI, he would observe a Chrysler fail to maintain the lane of travel and conducted a traffic stop. Deputy A.G. Hart responded to assist. The driver had signs of intoxication, no driver's license, and admitted to consuming two beers, but that he was "not drunk." Deputies thought otherwise. The driver was charged with driving under the influence and driving without a license. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

Galveston Road, 6/15, 2:57 p.m. Deputy W.J. Newton responded to larceny. The victim had his vehicle stolen. While it was located, unfortunately, it was located at the scene of a wreck in Spotsylvania where the driver fled before deputies arrived.

Walmart, 217 Garrisonville Road, 6/16, 5:20 p.m. Deputy S.M. Kotter responded to a larceny. Staff advised two female suspects were concealing items and left the area in a hurry. Deputy Kotter located both suspects not too far away still in possession of the stolen items. These items included candy, underwear, and Buzzballz. The items related to a strange night were returned to Walmart and both suspects received a summons for shoplifting. One of the suspects was only 19, so she also received a summons for unlawful possession of alcohol.

T&C Tobacco and Vape, 43 Town and Country Drive, 6/16, 7:03 p.m. Deputy J.A. Kotvas responded to a larceny. Staff advised while asking about the price of some products, a male suspect stole THC products.

WARRANT SERVED

Thomas Jefferson Place, 6/16, 6:15 p.m. Deputy S.C. Steinway responded to a warrant service. The suspect was wanted out of Spotsylvania for two offenses. While making contact with the suspect, they discovered the Suburban he was driving in had two different license plates, neither of which belonged to the Suburban. The suspect was served on his outstanding warrants, as well as, receiving stolen goods, altering a license plate, and driving while suspended. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.
