

STAFFORD COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
DAILY INCIDENT REPORT
RELEASE DATE: JUNE 2, 2025

LARCENY

Walmart, 11 Village Parkway, 5/30, 3:29 p.m. Deputies responded to a larceny. A shopper attempted to get a greater value on Great Value products by skip scanning items. Over $400 worth of items were recovered and the suspect was issued a summons for shoplifting.

All About Recovery and Towing, 1719 Warrenton Road, 5/30, 11:30 p.m. Deputy I.E. Baldi responded to a larceny. The victim advised after a hard day at work he discovered his vehicle was gone. Upon further investigating, it was discovered the vehicle in question was involved in a hit and run in a nearby jurisdiction. The vehicle was entered as stolen into a law enforcement database.

Target, 1090 Stafford Market Place, 5/31, 2:22 p.m. Deputy C.S. Harding responded to another skip-scanning suspect. Staff advised a shopper attempted to walk out with over $160 worth of items. She was issued a summons for shoplifting.

PUBLIC INTOXICATION

40 block of Warrenton Road, 5/30, 1:45 a.m. Deputy R.A. Kehoe responded to a loud lingerer. The caller advised a possibly intoxicated male was yelling in the area. When Deputy Kehoe arrived, he located the suspect displaying signs of intoxication as he laid on the ground. Instead of laying on the ground, the suspect was given a comfy bed at Rappahannock Regional Jail where he was held until sober on a public intoxication call.

THREATS

Hickory Lane, 5/31, 7:26 p.m. Deputy H.T. Wagner responded to a threats report. The victim advised a former coworker was threatening both him and his family via text. Warrants for threats of death are pending.
