DAILY INCIDENT REPORT
RELEASE DATE: JUNE 9, 2025

ASSAULT

Grosvenor Lane, 6/6, 9:54 a.m. Deputy A.J. Layug responded to an assault. Before his morning coffee, the suspect assaulted his roommate. A warrant for assault and battery was obtained.

DUI

Olde Forge Drive, 6/6, 5:49 p.m. Deputy S.C. Steinway responded to a rush hour accident. A Toyota struck an unoccupied semi-truck. The Toyota driver had signs of intoxication, admitted to consuming two shots, and a nearly empty bottle of tequila was located near the crash. The driver was charged with driving under the influence with a blood alcohol content between .15 and .2, as well as, drinking while driving. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail on a $2,500 secured bond.

LARCENY

Everett Lane, 6/6, 9:54 a.m. Deputy J.H. Helbling responded to a larceny. The victim advised in the early morning hours two people entered his vehicle and stole credit cards. The larceny was caught on camera. The victim would then later receive notification of fraudulent activity on those credit cards.

Walmart, 125 Washington Square Plaza, 6/6, 2:06 p.m. Deputy A.E. Epps responded to a larceny. Despite attempting to conceal items in a bag in secluded areas of the business, camera footage showed a female suspect shoplifting. She was stopped after she passed all points of sale with the nearly $200 worth of stolen items. She was issued a summons for shoplifting.

Red Roof Inn, 153 Garrisonville Road, 6/6, 3:58 p.m. Deputy C.D. Sullivan responded to a larceny. The victim advised he was traveling with two acquaintances. When he woke up, his buddies, cash, and his rental vehicle were all missing.

Sutton Court, 6/7, 12:04 p.m. Deputy H.H. Cassetta responded to a larceny. The victim advised his firearm was stolen from his vehicle.

Walmart, 125 Washington Square Plaza, 6/7, 3:42 p.m. Deputy C.D. Quebedeaux responded to a larceny. When wanted, it's best not to draw attention to oneself. A female suspect did the opposite by shoplifting using a bright pink duffle bag. The over $100 worth of items was recovered and it was confirmed she was wanted out of both Fredericksburg and Rockingham. She was served on her outstanding warrant, as well as, charged with shoplifting. She was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

ABC, 43 Town and Country Drive, 6/7, 5:37 p.m. First Sergeant D.W. Fetterolf responded to a Hennessy heist. Staff advised a regular visitor stole a bottle of Hennessy. Using the power of technology, First Sergeant Fetterolf sent out a picture of the suspect to other deputies, including Deputy A.J. Charoentep, who found the suspect on Kings Highway. The suspect was still in possession of the bottle and admitted that stealing it was a "stupid decision." He was issued a summons for shoplifting.

PUBLIC INTOXICATION

Taco Bell, 255 Garrisonville Road, 6/7, 2:20 a.m. Deputies responded to a Baja Blasted suspect. Staff advised a male was at the drive through window screaming profanities. The suspect was located and discovered to be nacho sober. He was charged with public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

Lakeview Court, 6/7, 3:42 a.m. Deputy R.T. Philippsen responded to an unknown problem. The caller advised there was an unconscious male. Deputy Philippsen located the suspect in an intoxicated state. It was also discovered the suspect was wanted out of Maryland for a failure to appear. He was charged with public intoxication and served on his failure to appear. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

St Georges Drive, 6/7, 3:00 p.m. Deputy J.J. Holetzky responded to a suspicious person report. The caller advised there was a male on her roof. Deputy Holetzky made contact with this fiddler on the roof and discovered he was high, and not in the elevation way. He was charged with public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.
