

STAFFORD COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
DAILY INCIDENT REPORT
RELEASE DATE: MAY 14, 2025

LARCENY

Walmart 11 Village Parkway, 5/13, 3:00 p.m. Loss Prevention reported a team of three males and a female stole over $2,000 in razors from the big box store. Deputy M.N. Sayegh is handling the investigation in an attempt to identify the audacious offenders.

Sky Terrace, Port Aquia and Stafford Meadows, 5/13, 6:31 a.m. Thefts from unlocked vehicles were the cynosure of deputies working in North Stafford yesterday. Deputies took several reports of larcenies of personal property from vehicles in North Stafford neighborhoods.

PUBLIC INTOXICATION

Weis 50 Foreston Woods Drive, 5/13, 9:50 a.m. Deputy J.L. Jones responded to a disturbance at the grocery store for a male tossing cookies. The cookies certainly weren't Oreos! Witnesses reported a male was walking in and out of the store throwing up into his hat. The 35-year-old man was found to be intoxicated. In order to ensure the problem did not fester, the suspect was placed in the Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

TRESPASS

Howell Library, 5/13, 3:44 a.m. Deputy C.R. Newman responded to the library for an alarm activation. While holding a perimeter and waiting for additional deputies, he observed a male inside the building. The male was ordered out and identified as a 16-year-old from Fredericksburg. The suspect was not a bibliophile, he had entered the closed business to use the restroom. The juvenile was turned over to a parent and a petition was submitted for the charge of trespass.
