

STAFFORD COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
DAILY INCIDENT REPORT
RELEASE DATE: MAY 15, 2025

FRAUD

Fair Oaks Avenue, 5/14, 5:52 p.m. Deputy T.W. Jenkins responded to some pigeon problems. The victim advised he paid for "exotic" birds from someone out of state, but had yet to receive the flock. After fearing the suspect was robbing him, he requested a refund. That is when the suspect chickened out and stopped replying to messages. Fowl play is suspected.

LARCENY

Town Square Circle, 5/14, 4:36 a.m. Deputy C.T. Richardson responded to a larceny. The victim was alarmed when he received an alarm on his phone that his vehicle door was just opened. Considering the victim was the only one in possession of keys to the Jetta, he went outside to discover an unknown man in the driver's seat. The suspect would quickly flee the scene, but not before stealing personal items like a makeup bag and lighter.

Wawa, 275 Butler Road, 5/14, 10:30 a.m. Deputy A.E. Epps responded to a donation disaster. A male suspect decided to donate the businesses donation box to himself. He would steal the donated coins before quickly leaving the area.

Spinnaker Way, 5/14, 12:08 p.m. Deputy H. Rivera responded to a larceny. The victim discovered his vehicle was in complete disarray. Among the disorganization, the victim discovered his wallet was no longer in the vehicle.

Lowe's, 1330 Stafford Market Place, 5/14, 3:57 p.m. Deputy X.D. Bates responded to a larceny. Staff wanted to report a larceny that occurred on May 7th. A male suspect decided it was Hammer Time and concealed two rotary hammers.

7-Eleven, 201 Garrisonville Road, 5/14, 8:16 p.m. Deputy C.D. Quebedeaux responded to the last vehicle larceny for the day. The victim advised he went into the business for approximately ten minutes. After the brief shopping experience, he returned to his vehicle to discover items missing, including a credit card.

PIO CONTACT: Ryan M. Wilbur
(540)-658-4468
rwilbur@staffordcountyva.gov

PUBLIC INTOXICATION

Parkway Boulevard, 5/14, 1:42 p.m. Deputy R.L. Beasley responded to a public intoxication call. The caller advised a male was stumbling, shrieking, and possibly smashed. Deputy Beasley located the suspect, who had signs of intoxication and claimed to have superhuman strength. This Superman would discover his kryptonite in the form of handcuffs. He was charged with public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

Super 8 Motel, 557 Warrenton Road, 5/14, 5:45 p.m. Deputy E.T. Osborn and Deputy I.E. Baldi responded to a drunken disturbance. The caller advised a “clearly intoxicated” female was attempting to drive off. Luckily, deputies arrived before she had a chance to drive off into the sunset. The suspect had signs of intoxication and admitted to consuming “probably too much.” She was correct. She was charged with public intoxication and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

This report does not encompass all of the reported crimes that may have occurred in the county, but only those noted for media interest. Anyone with information regarding the incidents listed in this report is asked to contact the Stafford County Sheriff’s Office at (540) 658-4450. For ongoing updates, follow us on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram.

PIO CONTACT: Ryan M. Wilbur
(540)-658-4468
rwilbur@staffordcountyva.gov