STAFFORD COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
DAILY INCIDENT REPORT
RELEASE DATE: MAY 23, 2025

DUI

Butler Road, 5/22, 2:06 a.m. Deputy A.M. Oliveira was traveling in the area when she observed a van in a ditch. Deputy Oliveira made contact with the driver, who advised he had "no idea" how the vehicle ended up in such a spot. While the vehicle had the good aroma of fresh wings from Buffalo Wild Wings, that aroma was overshadowed by the driver's strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his breath. Unfortunately for the driver, his lust for wings would have to wait, for he was charged with driving under the influence. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail on a $1,000 secured bond.

LARCENY

Walmart, 217 Garrisonville Road, 5/22, 12:27 p.m. Deputy C.S. Harding responded to a clothing criminal. Staff advised a male decided to update his wardrobe without paying. The stylish suspect left the scene in a gray Volkswagen.

Walmart, 11 Village Parkway, 5/22, 4:33 p.m. Deputy W.A. Bolinsky responded to a suspicious person call. Staff advised a male was bouncing around in some bushes in front of the business. Deputy Bolinsky located the suspect passed out in an intoxicated state surrounded by Star Wars toys and food. This Sith fan admitted to being both intoxicated and the suspect of a larceny. While dealing with this incident, Deputy I.E. Baldi was dispatched to a larceny report from Bites, located at 375 Warrenton Road. That larceny involved the same suspect stealing food, the same food he was found surrounded by. The suspect was charged with two counts of shoplifting and public intoxication. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail on a $1,000 secured bond.

VANDALISM

March Court, 5/22, 3:23 p.m. Deputy W.A. Bolinsky responded to a shattering incident. The victim advised a glass sliding door had new damages to it.
