DUI

Area of Courthouse Road and southbound I-95, 5/29, 12:51 a.m. Sergeant A.T. Leckemby and Deputy W.E. Trainor responded to a drunk driver complaint. It was advised a driver was passed out behind the wheel of a Chevy. When deputies arrived, they located the driver with an open bottle of Jack Daniels. The driver had signs of intoxication and admitted to consuming roughly two beers and a shot. The driver was charged with driving under the influence and drinking while driving. He was held at Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

7-Eleven, 327 Deacon Road, 5/29, 11:57 a.m. Deputy A.E. Epps responded to an auto accident. The victim advised she was at the gas pump when another driver struck her vehicle. She further advised the other driver "appeared off." Deputy Epps made contact with the at fault driver and observed signs of intoxication. The driver would admit to consuming a 99-proof banana drink prior driving. He was charged with driving under the influence and held at Rappahannock Regional Jail until sober.

LARCENY

Wendy Street, 5/29, 10:46 a.m. Deputy R.L. Hubbard responded to a vehicle break-in. The victim advised her debit card was stolen from her vehicle. She would later discover the card had fraudulent charges on it.

Walmart, 11 Village Parkway, 5/29, 3:58 p.m. Deputy E.T. Osborn responded to a larceny. The victim advised she was at the self-check out and forgot to retrieve the cash she withdrew. After leaving and realizing she forgot the money, she returned to discover the bills were no longer there.

Wawa, 920 Wonder Road, 5/29, 5:01 p.m. Deputy J.J. Holetzky responded to a larceny. Staff advised a group of males, who appeared underage, filled a backpack full of alcoholic beverages.
